World Vision

eight

forty stories, eight goals, one world

This stunning collection of photographs by world-renowned photographer Nick Danziger displays the slow progress made in tackling poverty.

Nick Danziger travelled to eight of the world's poorest countries where he met many children and their families or carers, all affected by poverty, hunger, injustice and inequality.

In September 2005 the exhibition opened at the Atrium, London County Hall.

Now it's coming to Singapore.

eight - a stirring exhibition exposing the regional and global challenges all around us.

The National Library, 16 - 20 March 2006

The Photographic Society of Singapore, 7 - 30 April 2006
